We are proud to serve rare tea cellar teas; they directly import rare and limited production single estate teas, harvested from remote regions of china, japan, sri lanka and the himalayas. the teas utilize organic, biodynamic, fair-trade, and wild grown production techniques. the purity of these processes preserves the natural anti-oxidants in the tea leaves to maximize health benefits.

PRIMEHOUSE
D A V I D B U R K E

at david burke's primehouse we believe in the social responsibility that we all have towards our planet. we have built relationships with sustainable local farmers and incorporated their products into our food and cocktail menus. the partnering of our creative culinary team and local farms produced some dazzling flavors. we'll let you be the judge..... enjoy products from the following vendors on our cocktail menu:

seedlings farm
mick klug farm
nichols farm
the spice house

also, please make note of the following symbol throughout our wine list. these wineries have taken steps towards minimizing their impact on the planet by using sustainable, organic or biodynamic practices.
